

Corporate Franchise Application (Franchisee)

Terms & Conditions

Criteria for Franchise Businesses

- a. An applying Franchise Business must have more than 15 operating Franchisees and be able to provide evidence that a Franchise model has been established.
- b. Franchisees are a beneficiary of the Franchisor's membership and must:
  - i. become a signatory to the FPA Australia Code of Professional Conduct
  - ii. hold a minimum of $10 million public and product liability insurance
- c. The Franchisor is responsible for all fees payable to FPA Australia and its renewal period applies to all Franchisees
- d. Membership voting rights are only applicable to the Franchisor
- e. If compliance with any applicable terms & conditions is in question or has been found to be breached, FPA Australia will notify both the Franchisor and relevant Franchisee. The actions of one Franchisee can cause the membership of the Franchisor to be terminated and therefore all Franchisee's would lose the benefit.
- f. It is the Franchisor responsibility to ensure each Franchisee complies with all Terms & Conditions
- g. The Franchisor must ensure that all Franchisee's are included or part of the arrangement at all times.
- h. The Franchisor must remain financial at all times. In the event that the membership is not financial, the Franchisor's membership will cease which in turn removes all benefits for all Franchisees.
- i. Corporate Franchise members not eligible to become a Platinum Member

Membership Application & Approval

All applicants must submit application forms correctly completed, signed and accompanied by full payment of the appropriate fee in order to be considered for membership.
