TERMS & CONDITIONS

Code of Ethics The Code of Ethics is designed to provide a benchmark against which to measure the work and services of members. It encourages members to appreciate that their work is of importance in maintaining public safety, health and welfare.

Further, it acknowledges that the fire protection industry employs technology which is constantly improving with the consequential need for a commitment to the training of individuals. FPA Australia members are expected to act in accordance with the Code and all applicable laws. The Code of Ethics can be viewed online at www.fpa.com.au/media/37920/code_ethics.pdf

Memorandum and Articles of Association (MAA)/Constitution The Fire Protection Association Australia (FPA Australia) is a company limited by guarantee pursuant to the Corporations Act 2001 and operates under a Memorandum and Articles of Association (MAA) approved by the Australian Securities and Investment Commission (ASIC). A copy of the MAA/Constitution, which sets out the objectives of the Association and the corporate governance rules, can be viewed online at www.fpa.com.au/membership.

Membership Application & Approval All applicants must submit application forms correctly completed, signed and accompanied by full payment of the appropriate fee in order to be considered for membership. The FPA Australia Board of Directors (the Board) has the sole discretion to approve or reject any membership application to the Association.

Termination and Suspension Membership will be suspended if fees are not paid by the due date and will be terminated after 30 days of the due date. Any member who breaches any of the following documents:

- Memorandum and Articles of Association/Constitution
- Code of Ethics
- Terms & Conditions of membership

Or is guilty of any misconduct or any other action deemed inappropriate may have their membership immediately suspended or terminated by the Board of Directors. If a membership is terminated or suspended the member must immediately cease representing that they are in any way affiliated or connected with FPA Australia. Membership fees are for a period of 12 months and are non-refundable.

Privacy Policy FPA Australia respects the privacy and personal information of its members. Personal and business information is collected by the Association for the primary purpose of providing services to members and maintaining the membership register. FPA Australia aims to manage and protect personal information in accordance with national privacy guidelines recommended pursuant to the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) or the most current version of this act, and the Australian Privacy Principles. The Association's Privacy Statement can be viewed online at www.fpa.com.au/about/privacy-policy.
