

Australia's premier fire safety magazine

About Fire Australia

Fire Australia is a quarterly publication, distributed to up to 5,000 members of Fire Protection Association Australia (FPA Australia), Australasian Fire and Emergency Service Authorities Council (AFAC) and the Bushfire & Natural Hazards CRC (BNHCRC).

Our readers

Readers include fire professionals in government and the fire safety professionals in the private sector as well as regulators, facility owners and managers, consultants, designers, installers and maintainers of fire equipment, emergency response personnel, researchers, educators, and insurance personnel.

Fire Australia Magazine keeps readers up-to-date and informed regarding the latest news and developments within the fire industry, ensuring that Fire Australia Magazine is their most read industry publication.

Content

Articles are obtained from a wide range of national and international sources in the fire community.

The magazine focuses on:

- Topical issues in fire protection and prevention;
- Important issues within the Australasian fire sector;
- Research into bushfire prevention;
- Highlighting lessons learnt from past fires;
- New fire protection hardware, systems and practices; and
- Industry news, events and other matters of interest.

Terms and Conditions of Agreement

(Payment terms are strictly 30 days from date of invoice. *Advertisers booking from outside Australia may be required to pre-pay for insertions prior to publication). FPA Australia (the publisher) reserves the right to revoke any advertising agreements without notice should invoices not be paid in accordance with the above payment terms. Artwork must be submitted in the format specified by the publisher by the artwork deadline date. Artwork designed in a similar style to our editorial pages will not be accepted. Artwork/Material requirements can be obtained from the publisher. FPA Australia reserves the right to refuse any advertising. If artwork is not received or signed off by the deadline date, the publisher reserves the right to charge for advertisement space not used and/or to use previously submitted material. The advertiser agrees that Victoria - the state in which the publication is produced is the appropriate jurisdiction for any or all disputes howsoever arising and howsoever relating to this booking agreement or the publication of this magazine. The particulars of the advertisement or entry to be placed in this publication will be provided by the advertiser and they form part of this document. These particulars include all artwork and other detail which is to be provided by the advertisers to the publisher. Fire Australia has a physical circulation of between 3,500 and 5,000 copies per issue and is also accessible online. Fire Australia Magazine is distributed throughout Australia and New Zealand.
