Chief Operating Officer
Fire Protection Association Australia
By email: Nathan.semos@fpa.com.au

Dear Mr Semos

Under section 59 of the Building and Development Certifiers Act 2018 (the Act) I hereby approve of the Fire Protection Association Australia (FPAA) to exercise the functions as an accreditation authority with respect to the accreditation of persons for purposes of the Act subject to the following conditions:

1. The FPAA must only accredit persons as an accredited practitioner (fire safety) in accordance with the “Fire Protection Association Australia Fire Protection Accreditation Scheme NSW Accredited Practitioner (Fire Safety) for Fire Systems Design (clause 136AA and 146B of the EP&A regulation) Fire Safety Assessment (Part 9 Division 5 and 7 of the EP&A regulation)” (the Scheme), submitted to NSW Fair Trading by email 28 June 2020.
2. The FPAA must monitor the relevant work of persons it accredits as an accredited practitioner (fire safety), including the audit of 10 per cent of all accredited individuals every 12 months, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Scheme.
3. The FPAA must accept complaints and take appropriate action in relation to complaints it receives about the work of persons it accredits as an accredited practitioner (fire safety), including investigating, disciplining and publish disciplinary decisions in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Scheme

This approval commences on 1 July 2020.

Please contact Jonathan Lynch, Manager Accreditation, Registry and Accreditation, NSW Fair Trading on [REDACTED] if you have any questions about this approval.

Yours sincerely
